

Christmas Gifts for Fountain of Hope in Uganda

led by Robert & Sarah Sityo

#1

1 chicken = $10 Pastor Robert would be able to give a chicken to someone in his church who is very needy so this family can eat and sell the eggs.

#2

1 soccer ball = $50 Pastor Robert's wife, Sarah oversees a school of 1000 children. Sarah will give a heavy-duty soccer ball to a class to enjoy.

#3

1 goat = $75 Pastor Robert would like to give a goat to the right families to raise as a way of increasing their income.

#4

Seeds for 2 families = $30 Planting season will be in February and families would benefit by receiving a gift of seeds so they can grow more food, eat well, and bless other families at harvest time.

#5

Education for a girl = $30 per month.

Robert and Sarah are committed to educating Muslim girls. If the girls have financial help their parents will allow them to go to school.

#6

Bibles = $30 Pastor Robert would like to make Bibles available as a gift to new believers in his churches.

#7 Mosquito bed net = $20

Pastor Robert would like to give a gift to a family that does not have a mosquito bed net to protect them from mosquitoes and getting malaria.

#8 School supplies = $40

With this gift, Sarah would purchase two new textbooks for an under-resourced classroom.

#9 A bicycle = $100

Pastor Robert would like to give the gift of transportation to a pastor who desires to reach villages far from his village with the Gospel message.

#10 Sewing machine= $300

Sarah could buy a sewing machine for a widow who knows how to sew, so that she can earn a living for her family.

Here's how you can give these gifts this Christmas!

Choose one or more of these gifts to give, or give them in the name of a family member. Make your check payable to Faith & Learning International. Send your check and a note indicating the number corresponding to your gift(s) to Cindy Judge, 5N525 Billy Burns Road, Wayne, IL 60184. Cindy will send your check to FLI—the Wheaton-based, Christian not-for-profit—and communicate to Pastor Robert & Sarah Sityo about your gift to their ministry in Uganda. You will receive a receipt from Faith & Learning. Read more about Fountain of Hope at <http://faithandlearning.org/2306>

Robert Sityo is a recent graduate of Wheaton Graduate School, a Billy Graham scholar, and is leading many churches in central Uganda where the people live in poverty. Robert and Sarah would like to reach out to those most needy with life-changing gifts from you. Sarah is the Children's Director of a large school in a predominantly Muslim community where they have led hundreds to faith in Christ.
